TRIVIA QUESTION!

Congrats to Barry Cummings, last month's trivia winner!

Being a Mom is No Joke, Jonathan!

But it sure does help to have a sense of humor...

"I want my children to have all the things I couldn't afford. Then I want to move in with them."

— Phyllis Diller

"My mother's menu consisted of two choices: Take it or leave it."

— Buddy Hackett

"I had to get back to work. NBC has me under contract. The baby and I only have a verbal agreement."

— Tina Fey

"If evolution really works, how come mothers have only two hands?"

— Milton Berle

"The most remarkable thing about my mother is that for thirty years she served the family nothing but leftovers. The original meal has never been found."

— Calvin Trillin

"The best way to keep children at home is to make the home atmosphere pleasant, and let the air out of the tires."

— Dorothy Parker

"If you were to open up a baby's head—and I am not for a moment suggesting that you should—you would find nothing but an enormous drool gland."

— Dave Barry

"When my kids become wild and unruly, I use a nice, safe playpen. When they're finished, I climb out."

— Erma Bombeck

MOM
Happy Mother's Day!

Mouth-Watering
Mother's Day
Crepes

- 1 1/2 cups milk
- 3 egg yolks
- 2 tbsps. vanilla extract
- 1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 tbsps. sugar
- 1/2 tsp salt
- 5 tbsps. melted butter

1. In a large bowl, mix together the milk, egg yolks & vanilla. Stir in the flour, sugar, salt and melted butter until well blended.
2. Heat a crepe pan over medium heat until hot. Coat with vegetable oil or cooking spray. Pour about 1/4 cup of batter into the pan and tip to spread the batter to the edges. When bubbles form on the top and the edges are dry, flip over and cook until lightly browned on the other side and edges are golden. Repeat with remaining batter.
3. Fill crepes with your favorite fruit, cream, caramel, or cheese to serve

"America is Hope. It is Compassion. It is Excellence. It is Valor."

WE OUR CUSTOMERS!

Manager's Message

I would like to start off this Manager's Minute by saying thank you to all who expressed well wishes and prayers for me- quite humbling and overwhelming - certainly has made the ongoing "journey" a little less intimidating and stressful in relation to the unknown about the future. Well, enough about me.

May already, appears we have finally put winter behind us, this time to look forward to warmer weather, better dispositions and the fun that awaits! This month offers us what I consider the only 'trifecta' of celebratory days which are Mothers Day, Armed Forces Day, and Memorial Day.

While all the relevance of Mothers Day and being a Navy veteran, Armed Forces Day is somewhat self explanatory, I will focus on Memorial Day - considered the first long weekend that we anticipate and plan to 'get away' on. In our haste, and yes, we in 'biz' are guilty of it too, seem to put our vehicle maintenance on the back burner and hope we don't have an issue that will completely turn a much anticipated good time into one that, quite frankly, sucks!

So what can you do to diminish your chances of car trouble and not think 'should I have had the car checked over before we left?' Simple- take advantage of the service specials Dan's Auto Service provides, it won't kill the vacation budget and you will have piece of mind, which is what Mastercard would call - Priceless.

See you soon, -Fred
