

Under the Hood

June 2015

Compliments of your friends at <<Fname>>, Let Dad Know He Holds a Special (and Comical!) Place In Your Heart...

Dads can get a bum rap. I mean, we all have (or know, or are married to) a super-mom who juggles a gagillion different kid activities, being a gourmet chef, a job, a home, and can leap tall buildings in a single bound. But let's face it: Dads get the short end of the stick sometimes when it comes to credit and appreciation (c'mon, a tie, toolkit and box of golf balls once a year only go so far).

Even if your dad (or the dad role model in your life) is the 'strong, silent type,' you probably picked up a few great traits by watching him work hard, keep the house from falling down, or protect your family (you may never have known how he stared down that bully behind your back). Even the most stoic of 'pops' can have a killer comical side that he keeps hidden... and Father's Day is the perfect chance to help him unleash his inner Funny Guy (and keeps things from getting... you know, mushy).

Thanks to the fine folks at www.Dodoburd.com, we've got our perfect TOP FIVE DAD'S DAY GIFTS to give the special guy a laugh and let him know that you really do appreciate him!

Kids aren't the only ones with super-hero dreams! Help Dad 'snuggle up' in this Batman Snuggie.

Dad will get tons of use out of the Black Leather Beer Holster - no more burned steaks while he runs for refills!

#3

Pops can protect his personal stash in the Fridge Locker... no more late-night raids from the teens!

HANDERPANTS. FOR REAL. Your dad will question how he ever got along without them.

Ray's Chicken

Compliments of www.AllRecipes.com!

1. In a large glass bowl, stir together the vinegar, oil, soy sauce, lime juice, lemon juice, sherry, mustard, & honey. Mix in the garlic, brown sugar, lemon pepper, oregano, rosemary, & salt. Place the chicken in the mixture. Cover, and marinate in the refrigerator 8 hours or overnight.
2. Preheat the grill for high heat.
3. Lightly oil the grill grate. Discard marinade, and place chicken on the grill. Cook 6-8 minutes per side, until juices run clear.

MANAGER'S MESSAGE

Finally made it into June, Whew! Time now for summer to explode upon us with all its warm weather and outdoor activities that await us. The first activity I will participate in is the American Cancer Society's Relay for Life. This year is has a much more profound meaning than in years past due, of course, to me being a cancer patient/survivor – not really sure when you transition from one to the other, guess it doesn't really matter.

There is also another outstanding activity you can participate in during the month of June. Our third annual Brakes for Babies promotion that Dan's Auto Service does. I am sure you have read about it so I won't elaborate too much, suffice to say we encourage everyone to take this opportunity to have your brakes serviced and help out children who will really benefit from your generosity.

SEE YOU SOON! -FRED

Help us support the March of Dimes...
 AND get a great deal!
 But Hurry! This is only valid through the end of June.
 Call 337-7090 for your appointment!

Why the March of Dimes?

When our daughter Savannah was born, she weighed only 3lb. 6oz. We spent a very stressful month in the NICU at Crouse Hospital. We know that without the continued research of the March of Dimes, our happy ending may not have been the same.
